Newspapers from Surrounding Towns
Gathered by the Times Able Corps of Correspondents.

DEANSBORO.

—Mr. Roscoe Savory of Chicago accompanied by his wife is visiting at the residence of his brother, William Savory of this place.

—Notices have been posted by the town clerk notifying the electors that at the town meeting to be held at Forge Hollow March 5th a vote by ballot will be taken on the resolution to divide the town meeting with one polling place in this village and the other in Waterville.

—The town board of Marshall has caused to be published a pamphlet which contains the accounts of the officials of this town. These accounts are given in items and are published for the information of the tax payers. The report of the supervisor, highway commissioner and overseer of the poor is also given. The tax payers are well pleased to have these accounts in which they are interested placed in their hands and they speak highly of the town board for having them printed. Citizens living in adjacent towns complain of their boards for not doing the same and say that it is a hard matter to find out regarding the nature of bills that are audited by the board and wish they would follow the example of the town of Marshall.

—A. J. Kendall of Walkerville, Canada, has been here for several days the past week.

—Attorney S. S. Judson of Vernon was here Tuesday on business of a legal nature.

—Photographer Kelley has completed a fine photograph of the faculty and pupils of the school. He also has an exhibition photo of Barton's saw mill taken while this romantic building was clad with ice.

—The remains of Mrs. J. M. Buell of Clinton were buried here Monday. Mrs. Buell was formerly a resident of this village and was well known in this vicinity. A husband and son are the surviving members of her family.

—There are said to be several applicants for the position of taking care of the milk station.

—Northrup & Smith are shipping potatoes.

—The roads are in very bad shape being full of pitch holes, and should receive the attention of the overseers before there is a serious accident.

—G. W. Bishop reports the hop market as follows: Since Tuesday morning he has bought 325 bales of hops at prices ranging from 4 to 9c. These purchases include the choice growth of G. B. Northrup of 74 bales for this lot 9c was paid for export. The Bartholomew estate lot of 108 bales, Godebald Burk's 46 bales, Menigo Corey's 37 bales, Frank Hubbard's 27, P. Murphy's 15 bales were among the lots purchased.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Spooner are rejoicing over the birth of a son.

—Mrs. James Spooner has been very ill but is convalescing.

—The people of this village were startled by seeing a very bright light in the south Tuesday night. It was so light here that one could see their shadow. It was soon found there was a fire in Hamilton which burned down all of the business portion of the town, including bank and post office. A great many people went down to see the fire in the night and many more went the next day to see the ruins.

—The Kings Daughters met with Mrs. John Dunster last week Wednesday afternoon.

—The ladies of the Baptist church held their missionary meeting at the parsonage Wednesday afternoon.

—The historical tableaux given by the students of Madison Academy, under the direction of Miss D. E. Brownell of Sauquoit, were well attended both Thursday and Friday evenings.

—The entertainment was a review of historical events from Columbus' first discovery of America to the world's fair. The proceeds received from the entertainment will go toward paying for a new organ. Miss Brownell showed great ability in being able to give so good an entertainment with so short a time to drill the pupils. Prof. Coleman, Miss Hardy and Miss Angel, teachers in the academy, did all in their power for its success. The school can not but prosper with this faculty.

—Mrs. Brown, mother of Mrs. I. D. Peaslee, died suddenly Friday evening of apoplexy. She was sick only an hour. The funeral was held at the parsonage Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and the remains placed in the vault until spring, when they will be taken to the family lot in the cemetery at Copenhagen. Since her life in this village Mrs. Brown has been more or less an invalid, but was a genial home companion and will be greatly missed.

ORISKANY FALLS.

Berry and family, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Livermore and E. Toles and family, a very pleasant afternoon and evening were passed.

—Miss Blanche Reed returned Wednesday from South Edmeston where she closed her school Monday with an exhibition in the evening.

—John Reed spent a few days of this week in South Edmeston.

—C. A. Stetson is on duty as jurymen in Utica.

—Miss Hattie Stetson is spending some time at H. R. Palmer's in Hubbardsville.

CLAYVILLE.

—Herbert King, son of A. H. King, residing about a mile east of Clayville, was found dead in bed Saturday morning. He retired at the usual hour Friday night apparently well. A member of the family, thinking he had overslept, rapped at his door, and received no answer, entered his room, and found him dead. Dr. Fisher was immediately summoned, and upon making an examination decided that death was caused from hemorrhage. He notified Coroner Tefft of the fact, but it was deemed unnecessary to hold an inquest. Mr. King was in his 24th year.

COUNTY AND NEIGHBORING.

Deaths and Happenings Here and There About the State.

—David Betsinger, of Clockville, has become violently insane.

—The controller of the currency, Saturday, declared a dividend of thirty-five per cent, to the depositors of the defunct Central National bank of Rome.

—Doc Minchion, charged with aiding and abetting the escape of Buncoer O'Brien from Utica about a year ago, was brought to Utica on Tuesday.

—The proceeds of the woman's edition of the Amsterdam Daily Democrat, to be issued soon, will be devoted to improving the Amsterdam City Library.

—A colored man named Martin Kelly was joined in marriage Monday evening to Angelina Keating, white, by Justice Warren in the trustees' rooms in Little Falls. The groom is 47 and the bride is 26 years of age.

—Lieutenant Freeman P. Peck, U. S. A., who was killed by an exploding Hotchkiss gun at Sandy Hook Tuesday, was the youngest son of ex-Sheriff A. W. Peck of Waterville and a brother of Carson Peck of Utica. He was born in this county.

—Ames Kimball, who with his brother broke into the house of Martin McMahon in Hicla, bound and gagged the old man, has been sentenced to 13 years and 11 months in Auburn prison. His brother pleaded guilty and was sentenced to the Elmira reformatory, but Ames preferred to stand trial.

—Hugh Parker, proprietor of the Oneida Post, has been sued by Mary D. Case and her daughter, Carrie D. Bertrams for libel. Jenkins & Denevieux are attorneys for the plaintiffs. Damages in the sum $5,000 are asked. The alleged libel consists of an article in the last issue of the Post, which is a brief statement regarding the suit for $500 damages brought by Lizzie Harley against Mrs. Case and her daughter for assault alleged to have been committed by the latter two on Miss Hurley while she was employed as domestic in the family.

—Lally & Brooks, of Norwich, have received an order from a large wholesale house at Sidney, called the Sidney Novelty Works, for $20,000 worth of goods and as many more as they can manufacture and deliver by May 1, 1895. The orders are for next winter's trade. To meet the demand Messrs. Lally & Brooks will be compelled to establish a large factory at once. Already several towns have made flattering inducements, and Norwich among them. Oxford has appointed a committee to exert every effort to get the factory to locate there.

—A singular and serious accident occurred last Friday on the farm owned by B. A. Welch, about two miles west of Greene, by which J. O. Hammond lost his right arm just above the elbow and also one of his horses. Mr. Hammond was engaged in cutting stove wood with a mangle circular saw operated by tread horse power, when the band wheel of the power flew to pieces, thereby of course releasing the band, which caused the saw to jump suddenly to the left, striking his right arm at the elbow joint and nearly severing it. A piece of the flying wheel struck a horse hitched near by and instantly killed it. Mr. Hammond was at once taken to Greene where Dr. George O. Williams, assisted by Dr. Cranfill, amputated the arm just above the joint. Although much weakened by the loss of blood, Mr. Hammond, who is nearly 60 years of age, is doing well, and likely to recover.

BRIDGEWATER.

—On Tuesday occurred the death of Allen M. Perkins, an old and esteemed resident. He was born at Sterling, Conn. in 1814. He came to this state in 1848 and in 1857, made this village his permanent home, being engaged in mercantile business till about 13 years ago when he retired. Mr. Perkins was one of the founders of the Methodist society here and was a member of Western Star Lodge, No. 15. He was noted for his charities. He was a Democrat and a willing worker for his party. His wife and three children are left.

—Mrs. Mary Innes died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. O. Biederman, Tuesday. She was born in North Bay in 1811 and until she came here to make her home, a year and a half ago had always lived there. Three children survive.

—A Des Moines woman who has been troubled with frequent colds, concluded to try an old remedy in a new way, and accordingly took a tablespoonful (four times the usual dose) of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy just before going to bed. The next morning she found that her cold had almost entirely disappeared. During the day she took a few doses of the remedy (one teaspoonful at a time) and at night again took a tablespoonful before going to bed, and on the following morning awoke free from all symptoms of the cold. Since then she has, on several occasions, used this remedy in like manner, with the same good results, and is much elated over her discovery of so quick a way of curing a cold. For sale by E. G. Brown, Druggist.

Verdict in the Norwich Accident.

The coroner's jury in the case of the infant son of James H. Roberts, of Binghamton, killed in the wreck near Norwich Feb. 8, handed in their verdict Friday. They found that said wreck was caused through the carelessness and negligence of the D. L. & W. R. Co. company by running trains on said 8th day of February, 1895, without extra precaution, knowing the road to be in bad condition.
