EVER VICTORIOUS JAPS.

Latest Conquest as Told In Official Dispatches.

SURRENDER OF WEI HAI WEI.

Report of the Suicide of Chinese Admiral Ting Confirmed—Complete Surrender of Chinese Forces on Land and Sea—Other Chinese Officers Ended Their Lives to Avoid Punishment For Their Disastrous Defeat.

YOKOHAMA, Feb. 18.—An official dispatch from Wei Hai Wei, bearing date of Feb. 18, has been received here. It states that in response to the offer made by Admiral Ting, the Chinese naval commander, to surrender his vessels if conditions of amnesty were granted, Admiral Ito, commander of the Japanese naval forces, demanded that the naval station be thrown open this (Wednesday) morning. The Chinese messenger who conveyed this demand returned to Admiral Ito and informed him that Admiral Ting had committed suicide on the night of Feb. 18 and that his responsibility had been transferred to Captain McClure, formerly the master of a British merchant vessel, who had been appointed by the Chinese government as assistant to Admiral Ting. Admiral Ito at the time the dispatch was sent was conferring with Captain McClure.

A dispatch dated Feb. 14 from Field Marshal Oyama, who is in command of the Japanese military forces at Wei Hai Wei, announces the complete surrender of the Chinese on land and sea.

He also announced that Admiral Ting and two other officers committed suicide after addressing a letter from the Chinese flagship accepting the Japanese demands.
The Chinese soldiers garrisoning the forts on the island of Liu Kung Tao, the last of the defenses of Wei Hai Wei to hold out against the Japanese, and the sailors of the Chinese fleet were to be taken beyond the Japanese lines and liberated, while the captured officers and the foreigners will be conveyed away by ship before they are given their liberty.

CHINA'S CONQUERED LEADERS.

Bodies of the Suicides Sent Home by Their Consigners.

CHEFOO, China, Feb. 19.—The steamer Kang Chi, loaded by the Japanese for the purpose of carrying the remains of the Chinese naval commander, Admiral Ting, Admiral Ito, the Chinese naval commander, who committed suicide after the surrender of his fleet to the Japanese at Wei Hai Wei.

The steamer also brought the bodies of Commander Liu and Captain Chang, commander of the military forces at Wei Hai Wei, all of whom killed themselves rather than to suffer the punishment that would have been meted out to them by the emperor for the failure of his forces to repel the Japanese.

The Japanese paid the greatest respect to Admiral Ting's remains.

Captain Yang shot himself as the Japanese went over the side of the flagship.

ADJOURNED CONSPIRACY TRIAL.

Regina V. Debs Says It Will Never Be Resumed.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Feb. 18.—The adjourned conspiracy trial at Chicago will never be resumed. It will die out," said Eugene V. Debs, president of the American Railway union.

"While confined in the Woodstock jail I said I would state my head and my colleagues. That statement has been good as proven true as a result of the recent three days I was in court at Chicago.
That adjourned trial will never be continued. I will never be put on the stand again in this case. I want a trial, but the general managers' association has convinced me to have it killed. We had the jury with us unanimously. Mr. Wickes went to Europe to escape the trial.

"I will tell the people of Chicago a few things on Thursday evening, Feb. 23, when I will speak at the Auditorium on 'Who Are the Conspirators?' A series of sessions will be sprung regarding the General Managers' association which would have come out in the trial if it had been continued."

WHITE RIBBONS MEET.

Temperance Advocates to Present Their Petition to Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—A good attendance greeted the opening session of White Ribbons, which began with singing of hymns, followed by an address of welcome by Mrs. M. E. Griffith, president of the district Women's Christian Temperance union, to which Mrs. Clara C. Hoffman, recording secretary of the national union, responded. Then came a prayer and consecration meeting conducted by Mrs. Catherine E. Stevenson of Chicago, and participated in by other prominent workers in the cause of temperance.

Mrs. Frances Willard and Lady Henry Somerset were unable to be present, having been detained in Boston, but are expected to arrive during the day.

The principal object of the gathering is to call to the attention of congress and the president as strongly as possible the immense political petition which has arrived in Washington after a journey round the world, and it is expected that the signatures of more than 3,000, 000 people of all nationalities.

PHILADELPHIA ELECTIONS.

Indications Are That Warwick Is the New Mayor.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—The elections here resulted in a victory for the Republican party. Not only were there more ballots put in the boxes than ever before, but the ticket in every ward was cut up to such extent as to make the work of tabulating the vote very difficult. In a

R. E. PATTISON.

total vote of 214,747, Charles F. Warwick, Republican candidate for mayor, had a plurality of 60,989 over ex-Governor Robert E. Pattison, the Democratic standard-bearer. This is the greatest plurality ever given a candidate in a municipal contest, the previous record being 39,068, received by S. Stuart in 1891.

Unusual interest was manifested in the election and a remarkably large vote was cast. It was called "Republican weather" and spring like, with a bright sun shining. The day was generally observed as a holiday and the streets were crowded.

The fight waged by the two reform organizations—the Municipal League and the Citizens' Committee of Ninety-five—was directed against the councilmen whose records justified their "warring down."

The most sanguine of the Republican leaders did not hope for a majority higher than 35,000 or 40,000, while Governor Pattison expressed himself as confident that he would be elected by about 30,000 plurality.

That the Pennsylvania Democracy—the faction opposed to the leadership of National Chairman Harris—cut Pattison is indicated by the fact that the Twelfth ward, which usually goes Democratic, gave Warwick 400 majority.

The Municipal League made a strenuous effort to prevent fraud and had watchers employed in nearly every one of the almost 1,000 divisions in the city. It also notified every election officer that anyone caught signing an election return before the polls closed would be prosecuted and sent to jail. In some divisions it has been the practice to prepare the returns early in the day, giving whatever majority may be mutually agreed upon without the vote being actually cast.

The greatest interest was manifested in this election, as it long since assumed the shape of a desperate fight against the Republican "combine" headed by David Martin and Senator Charles A. Porter.

The "throwing down" by these leaders of Senator Penrose just before the convention at which it was generally supposed he would be nominated, created a great deal of dissatisfaction among the Republicans and led to the open breach between Senator Quay and the leaders of the combine.

From that time it was thought that the would give the ticket to the victor, but the overwhelming majority rolled up by Republicans clearly demonstrates that Mr. Quay decided to sacrifice his personal feelings to the good of his party and turned in for the support of the ticket.

Mr. Warwick received the returns as Mayor Stuart's office and expressed his great satisfaction at the result, though agreeably surprised at the large figures.

Mr. Pattison remained at his country home at Overbrook and received the returns over a special wire.

MURDERER GENTRY FOUND.

Unconscious From an Attempt to Commit Suicide by Stabbing.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 20.—James B.
Gentry, the murderer of Madge York, has just been found unconscious on a doorstep at Thirty-third street and Columbia avenue.

He was taken to a hospital, where he regained consciousness and admitted his identity and crime.

He said he had stabbed himself with suicidal intent.

An examination by physicians revealed two incised wounds, penetrating the lungs.

Gentry explained these by saying that he had attempted to commit suicide by stabbing himself with a penknife, but the blade broke, or he would have persisted in his attempt.

He had $9 on his person, but said that he had had nothing to eat for two days, except snow, because he was afraid to go anywhere.

Gentry is also suffering from a compound fracture of the skull and is severely bruised and wounded. These injuries, he says, he received in jumping from the fire escape in the rear of Zela hotel after the commission of the crime.

The physicians at the hospital say that he is in a very dangerous condition.

School Teacher's Identity Fixed.

LYONS, N. Y., Feb. 20.—Coroner Barnes held an inquest over the remains of the school teacher known as Eleanor J. Davison, who was frozen to death in North Lyons about a week ago. She was identified by Dr. Herman R. Albright of Addison as Inez J. Geer, who was born on July 4, 1868, near Waverly, and adopted by Mr. and Mrs. George W. Davidson of Addison. They brought her up until six years ago, when she left them and had not since been heard from. This clears up the mystery surrounding the woman, as it had been impossible to establish her identity, she having lived and travelled as Eleanor J. Davidson, Nellie J. Davison, Nellie J. Davis and Eleanor J. Davison. Her parents are both dead, a step-brother, Frank L. Geer, being her only known relative.

INSANITY RULED OUT.

The Hayward Defense Loses
Another Point.

EXCITING DAY IN THE TRIAL.

The Defense Falls As Yet to Prove an Alibi—Efforts to Impach Blix's Coe-sion Only Partially Successful—Today's Scene When the Father of the Defendant Boys Took the Stand—Broad Down and Wept.

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 21.—Mrs. Adry Hayward, the witness in the Blix trial, preceding her testimony, Horace L. Welch, paying seller of the City bank, and Louise Inland were sworn.

Welch testified to having paid Harry Hayward between $5,000 and $7,000 after Sept. 1, 1894, thus accounting for the defendant's possession of money that did not come from Miss Gling.

Miss Inland was questioned by the defense as to Harry's calling at the flat on days preceding and on the day of the murder.

Mrs. Adry Hayward was then put on the stand. Her testimony simply bore on the question of the time Harry Hayward called as Adry's flat on the night of the murder.

Mrs. L. T. Hayward, the mother of the defendant, was then sworn. The first part of her testimony was intended to help establish Harry's alibi.

Mrs. Hayward said Harry came into her room at 7:30 and said he was going out to see a call. About 30 minutes later he came in again, hurriedly brushed his hair and went out, saying that he was going to the opera.

The 30 minutes between these two times is the vital period, for it was at that time, according to the testimony, that Harry put him in the bag with Miss Gling with instructions to drive away and kill her.

"The question of insanity in the family was asked by the state.

"We wish to show that at the time preceding the going to Elder Stewart and at that time Adry was resting under a delusion," said Mr. Erwin.

"The court determined as to his competency when he was on the stand and there was no offer to prove the contrary. Insane persons, especially those who are monomaniacs are competent to testify," retorted the court.

Mr. Erwin asked a long series of questions bearing on Adry's actions, his jealousy, his unreasoning fears during youth, the medical treatment he had been given, etc., but they were all ruled out.

The largest crowd since the trial began was in the courtroom in the afternoon.
For the first time since the actual trial opened, W. W. Hayward, the father of the prisoner, came into the room and seated himself near his wife and boy.

Mrs. Hayward again took the stand, but owing to the numerous objections entered by the state nothing material was developed.

W. W. Hayward, the father of the two boys, was the last witness. The witness was one of Blix's statements, but as a material impeachment the testimony was a failure.

In regard to Adry's evidence, the witness denied that on Nov. 24 he was sent by Harry to the flat to show people rooms and came back and asked why he had been sent for them, as there was no one there. He had gone to the flat on an arrangement of his own with two ladies.

Witness said he was in his office the morning of Nov. 25. Harry was there a half hour, but he did not see him. Adry was there for a short time. They were not there alone that morning.

This is the time when Adry stated that Harry and he had the exciting interview in reference to the proposed killing of the woman.

The witness corroborated his wife in that portion of her testimony where she said Adry was violent on Oct. 7 and called his mother names which reflected upon her character.

In telling of the occurrences, the old boy, came down and sobbed, and the proceedings were delayed some time waiting for him to compose himself.

Half the women in the audience cried from sympathy.

He testified that he had kept a large number of $1 bills in an iron box in his bedroom for about two years, and upon looking there the other day, found that they were all gone but one. Both boys, he said, knew the combination to his safe.

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 19.—"How does it look now, old man?" asked Harry Hayward after court adjourned, as he slumped friend on the back and laughed heartily.
He was in a good humor. It was a day for the defense.

After four long weeks of trial the defense had at least made a mark with the testimony of Maggie Wachter, the stenographer, the state having withdrawn its objections to her testimony.

Miss Wachter was positive and could not be shaken by cross-examination. She called Blix a liar, O'Dell a schemer to make money out of the county and Assistant County Attorney Hall a bulldozer and intimidator of women.

Mrs. W. W. Hayward, the mother of the boys, came into court to hear her elder son again accused of the crime from the lips of the woman who was to impeach the testimony of Blix.

She took it calmly, although there was a look of satisfaction on her face as she heard the witness testify and heard how Mr. Nye failed to shake her.

Harry was jubilant, but controlled himself, yet often he would burst out into uncontrollable laughter as Miss Wachter would make an unusually savage thrust at Mr. O'Dell or Mr. Hall.

After court adjourned Mr. Hall stated that there was not a word of truth in what she had stated about him. In her evidence she said that Hall had called on her and attacked her character in a most

ADVERSE AND SCANDALOUS MANNER.

"Why, our meeting was most pleasant," said Mr. Hall. "Do they think I am a fool to talk the way she says to a woman?"

Miss Wachter is the stenographer of Blix's attorney, who was to testify that Blix has stated to his attorney in her presence that it was with Adry Hayward and not with Harry

THE WEEK.

—A fine escape, in the shape of iron ladders with a landing at the top, has been attached to the Opera House on the east side.

—There will be a meeting to-night of the Town Board in C. W. Munroe's office to settle with the supervisor and various town officers.

—This afternoon in Arcanum Hall Miss Clara Timian gives a closing reception from four until seven o'clock, for her junior dancing class.

—Two sleighing parties enjoyed a ride Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Earle Bennett delighted the Kindergarten children and Miss Belle Kennedy entertained a number of her young friends in like manner.

—Fourteen young men were suspended from the Waterville Academy yesterday for going to Hamilton on Wednesday to see the ruins of the great fire. On presenting proper excuses from their parents, it is said, they will be reinstated.

—One of the questions to be voted on at the Town meeting March 5th is that of a stone crusher. It is thought by many that one is needed for the town of Sangerfield and that much more permanent improvements on the roads can be made with crushed stone than in any other way. This is undoubtedly true and the stone crusher resolution will probably be acted upon favorably.
