

The Family History and Genealogy

It is Not a Failure

Millingas. Millanges. Milliken. Millikin. Millikan. Millican,
Milligan. Mullikin. Mulliken

The subjoined certificate shows that the long looked-for History, Genealogy, and Biography of the families above-named is nearly completed and will soon be ready for delivery. About 500 pages are already printed. There will be 300 pages more.

This book will be a royal octavo size containing about 800 pages of condensed matter, and comprising nearly 20,000 names, beautifully printed on "pearl-white" paper made expressly for this purpose.

It will be illustrated with coats-of-arms, family portraits, and views of residences in Great Britain and America.

All families of the names, and those connected by marriage or descent, should own a copy of this remarkable book; and those who have not ordered should fill out the enclosed blank and return at once. When the work is "out of print," copies cannot be procured at any price. As the work will not be handled by booksellers nor agents, all orders should be addressed to the author.

Books will be promptly shipped in cases, protected against injury, on receipt of price. No express charges paid by the author. Books will not be sent C. O. D. west of New York.

All remittances should be by bank drafts, express checks, or postal money orders—not by registered letters.

One copy bound in cloth, price . . . . .	$5.00
One copy bound in sheep . . . . .	7.00
One copy bound in Levan (de lux) . . . . .	10.00

All subscribers should be careful to signify which kind of binding is wanted.

We most strongly recommend for a book to be much used and to be handed down to posterity, a substantial binding.

PRINTERS' CERTIFICATE

To whom it may concern:

This certifies that the undersigned have contracted to finish the printing of the history and genealogy of the Millikens, Mullikens, Milligans, etc., for Rev. G. T. Ridlon, Sr., the author, within the next twelve weeks—barring unavoidable accidents by fire, flood, or strikes.

LEWISTON JOURNAL CO.,
LEWISTON, ME.

February 10, 1907.

The only personal guarantee necessary to offer by the author is the fact that six practical business men bearing the family name have paid and pledged twelve hundred dollars toward the production of this book,—exclusive of more than five hundred dollars paid for illustrations; however, anyone wishing for references may consult Orman L. Stanley, Esq., local postmaster, who has known the author many years.

All other communications should be addressed to

REV. G. T. RIDLON, SR.,
KEZAR FALLS, YORK COUNTY, MAINE.