76. Jacob Colmer (Lavinia Rosensteele, Jacob Rosensteele, Andrew, Johannes) was born on 1 Apr 1842 in Duff's Mills, Franklin Township, Allegheny, Pennsylvania. He died on 8 Feb 1929. He was buried in Uniondale Cemetery, Pittsburgh, Allegheny, Pennsylvania.

Enumerated with parents in 1850 census of Franklin Twp, Allegheny Co., Pa. Jacob Colmer was born April 1, 1842 at Duff's Mills, Franklin township, Allegheny county, Pa., his parents being natives of the state. His father, William Colmer, was born in Allegheny county, Pa., and his mother, Lavinia Rosensteel, was born near Emsworth, in the same county, and both were descendants of the Pennsylvania Dutch. The son remained at home until he was 18 years of age, working at farming and in the blacksmith shop with his father. On the Monday evening following the call of President Lincoln for 75,000 three months men, Mr. Colmer placed his name as first on the roll of a company of volunteers being recruited by Thomas Gibson, Jr., at a place called Cross Roads, not far from Bakerstown, Allegheny county. After the company had been partly recruited, they went to Pittsburgh, but the quota from Pennsylvania was now filled, and the company was not accepted; but they still held their organization, and when the call came for three years men, they were again doomed to disappointment, so many troops being ahead of them. They then decided to equip themselves as an independent company, and while preparations were being made to this end, word was received that they were wanted at Wheeling, Va., to which place they went. Mr. Colmer was mustered into the service as sixth corporal, but on account of good conduct and attention to his duties, rose step by step until June 17, 1862, he was promoted first sergeant of the company, and held this position until September 29, 1862, when he was promoted to second lieutenant. On several occasions he acted as adjutant of the regiment, and had command of his company on the Salem Raid. On April 27, 1864, he was promoted to first lieutenant, and detailed to the position of adjutant, but declined the position, as he had become so attached to the members of his company that he did not wish to be taken away from them. He served his full term of enlistment and was mustered out with the company. Lieut. Colmer received what education he had by careful attention to studies in the four months per year schooling then in vogue in country districts, and in the summer of 1860, took a course of bookkeeping in Duff's College, Pittsburgh. He was married on December 22, 1868, to Miss Mary E. Scott, of Sharon, Mercer county, Pa., but a native of Allegheny county. The result of this marriage is a family of four bright children, the oldest, William H., now in his 21st year, Alice Scott 16, Lizzie Bell 14, and Charles Stevenson 4 years old. Since the war Lieut. Colmer has served in several responsible positions. For a long time he was clerk in the Pittsburgh pension office; for over 12 years bookkeeper for one large firm in Allegheny City, and is now agent for the Allegheny Insurance Company, of Pittsburgh. He is now serving his 18th year as permanent secretary of Twin City Lodge, No. 241, I. O. O. F., also as trustee of the same lodge during the last 18 years. He also served as secretary of Allegheny Lodge 223, A. F. and A. M., for six years after the close of the war. He now resides at Avalon, Pa., on the P. F. W. & C. Railway, six miles down the Ohio river from Pittsburgh. Lieut. Colmer served his country well and faithfully. He was a brave and accomplished officer, respected as such by all the men of the regiment, and a gentleman held in the highest esteem by all his comrades. As a citizen there are none truer, and he is a worthy and honored son of the country he helped so ably to protect. from the History of the Fifth West Virginia Cavalry by Frank S. 116. Isaac Rosensteel (Jonathan Rosensteel, Andreas Rosensteel, Andrew, Johannes) was born in 1845 in Hempfield, Westmoreland, Pennsylvania. He died on 15 Feb 1900 in Pittsburgh, Allegheny, Pennsylvania.

Isaac ROSENSTEEL was born on 1 Oct 1845 in PA. He died on 15 Feb 1900 in Pittsburgh, Allegheny Co., PA. He was buried in Harrold's Cemetery, Greensburg PA. My Grandfather Rosensteel, that is Levi Jr., always told me that his Grandfather, Isaac Rosensteel, was killed by a streetcar. I thought, perhaps, if I would research a newspaper at the time of his death on February 13, 1900, it just might make the news. And it did!

The Greensburg paper had information in the article that I never expected to find. Isaac was killed by a streetcar in Pittsburgh. According to the article and following the accident, Isaac mumbled his name but bystanders could not understand him and thought he said his name was Lowenstein. He died shortly after the accident. The obituary listed his two children, Charles John and Emma Jane, but Levi was listed as his stepson!

No records were ever found showing Levi's mother, Maria Louisa Kemp, being married to any person other than Isaac Rosensteel. When Levi was four years old, he took the name Rosensteel when his Mother married Isaac.

After Maria's death at age 38, Isaac married Susan Keener, a widow with six children of her own. Prior to this marriage, Isaac had taken care of Susan and these children. However following the marriage, Susan asked Isaac to also take care of her brother and his three children. Isaac refused and they separated. Divorce papers in the Westmoreland County Court House indicated they never really lived together more than several days at a time. But it was enough time for Susan to get pregnant and bear a daughter, Edith Lilia. Isaac and Susan were married October 15, 1893 and divorced on _____. Edith remained with her mother following the divorce. Parents: Jonathan ROSENSTEEL and Julianna SELL.

Spouse: Maria Louisa KEMP. Isaac ROSENSTEEL and Maria Louisa KEMP were married on 23 Dec 1873. Children were: Levi Kemp ROSENSTEEL Sr, Emma Jane ROSENSTEEL, Charles John ROSENSTEEL, Edith Lilia HOWELL.

Spouse: Susan KEENER. Isaac ROSENSTEEL and Susan KEENER were married on 15 Oct 1893 in Pittsburgh, Allegheny Co., PA.

Isaac married Maria Louisa Kemp daughter of Levi Kemp and Mary Polly Eichar on 23 Dec 1873. Maria was born in 1845 in of Hempfield, Westmoreland, Pennsylvania.

They had the following children:

- 239 M i. Jacob Rosensteel was born in of Greensburg, Westmoreland, Pennsylvania.
- 240 F ii. Mary Ann Rosensteel was born in 1848 in „,Pennsylvania.
- 241 M iii. Levi Kemp Rosensteel was born on 22 May 1869 in „,Pennsylvania. He died on 14 Dec 1953 in Ludwick City, Westmoreland, Pennsylvania.

Levi was named after his grandfather, Levi Kemp. From his granddaughter, Linda Soles:

"My recollections of Grandpa Rosensteel were more of curiosity than anything. He lived alone at the Rosensteel home on 525 Green Street in Southwest Greensburg when I was growing up. Most of the time, he was inebriated from excessive drinking. From time to time, we would see Grandpa Rosensteel, wearing a brown suit and brown hat, walking the streets of downtown Greensburg but never in a straight line. My sister, Carol, and I would walk past his home on our way to school each day. Our eyes would search the outside of the house for a glimpse of the old man. However, if he was working outside, we would run to the other side of the street as we were afraid of him. For you see, we knew him, but he did not know us.

He was born to Maria Louisa Kemp and was a stepson to her husband, Isaac Rosensteel. After Maria died at the age of 38, Levi was placed in a guardianship under Uriah Kemp, his mother's brother. His uncle, Henry Kemp, and Henry's two maiden sisters, Sarah and Elizabeth Kemp, took Levi, then 14 years old, to raise him. When Levi married, he named his first child, a daughter, Sarah Elizabeth, after these two maiden aunts. The name "Elizabeth" was then passed on to my mother, Helen Elizabeth Rosensteel Soles, Sarah Elizabeth's niece."

Levi married Flora Jane Albright . Flora was born in Aug 1873. She died on 30 May 1944 in of Ludwick City, Westmoreland, Pennsylvania.
