

A PLEA: Obviously a work of this nature can never be complete, nor totally accurate. The compiler, Mr. Patrick M. O. Evans, has spent many thousands of hours over a period exceeding ten years to produce this volume from information provided by Pritchard kin. Pat has completely and accurately recorded the material we have provided. If inadequacies or inaccuracies have materialized, the fault lies with the descendants of James and Judith.

Should your family not be so fortunate as to hold a traditional family Bible, we have included at the back of this volume some pages which could be used for your family record of births, marriages, deaths and other significant events.

A copy of this volume could be an appropriate graduation or marriage present, or indeed, as a gift upon almost any occasion.
