Dear Mamma
How are you? Have you got the front room cleaned? I'll bet it looks nice. We went swimming Tues. It is too cold to go now, but maybe we will some day. I'll sure be glad to get home. The women have been in to it. Mrs.
Gibson was crying last night because Marilyn was sick, but she is better now. If Mildred were the only women that were here. It would be all right.

Mrs. Gibson gave us 30¢ for washing & writing us, & Helma gave us 10¢. Be sure
