

HELLO, FRIEND!

"A friend is a person of rare understanding
On whom you can always depend.
Someone who shares all your worries and cares
With whom you don't have to pretend.

A friend brings true pleasure in bountiful measure
By just a kind word or a smile.
And the moments you spend with one who's your friend
Are the kind that are always worth while.

A friend knows your dreams and your schemes,
And your hopes for each mile of life's way,
And the longer you live the more your friends give
New purpose to each passing day.

A friend is a treasured and marvelous blend
Of all a nice person could be.
And OH! I'm so thankful you've chosen to share
YOUR WONDERFUL FRIENDSHIP WITH ME!"
