

Tombstone Inscriptions at St. John's (Hain's) Church Cemetery

Note: The following text includes some annotations by the submitter.

Some sources identify the location of this cemetery as Wernersville. For some additional burials at Hain's cemetery, see the other Hain's Church Cemetery listing.

1735-1911

The list of tombstone inscriptions which follows was prepared by Henry Beckley Werner (born May 23, 1844, died January 1, 1916, buried in the West Cemetery at the Church). The labor involved in reading all of the tombstones, writing down the inscriptions and arranging them in alphabetical order must have been enormous. It is indeed a fortunate circumstance that through publication in this book, his work is given permanency.

In addition to information from the tombstones, Mr. Werner added considerable information from other sources relating to family history, such information being usually included in parentheses.

The reader will be interested in noting the prevalence of certain names in the list, keeping in mind, however, that the list extends only to 1911, excepting in cases where tombstones had been erected prior to death, in which cases the dates of death subsequent to 1911 have been inserted. Among the names that appear most frequently are Bechtel (14 names), Binkley (16), Bohn (34), Boyer (18), Dunkleberger (11), Eirich (22), Faust (37), Fischer and Fisher (75), Gaul (24), Gerhard and Gerhart (65), Greth (33), Hain (including finger (15), Lerch (23), Ludwig Lamm (17), Lambert (15), Lein Lamm (17), Lambert (15), Leininger 15), Lerch (23), Ludwig (14), Miller (32), Moyer (25), Reber (16), Ruth (112), Schaefer (36), Seitzinger (16), Sell (13), Smith (16), Spohn (11), Staudt and Stoudt (27), Stiely (22), Stitzel (16), Strunk and Strunck (23), Ulrich (12), Weitzel (16), Wenrich (23), Werner (33), Witmoyer and W hitmoyer (13), Yoder (23), and Yoh (26).

Note that the Ruth family heads the list in the number of names, the Hain family is second, the Fisher family third and the Gerhart family fourth.

Mr. Werner prefaced the list with the following:

The aim of the collector hereof is: 1. The preserving of the names and advancing of the history of the many families. 2. To honor the memory of those who have gone before. 3. To inspire the future or coming generation to continue the preservation and history of their respective families. It is hoped that this work may awaken an interest in members of the different families and result in many family records being written, and the various lines of descent of their respective ancestors being clearly marked out in order that they may be handed down to future generations who will appreciate the same.

Family History and Record. The study of family history elevates and ennobles the nature of man, and lifts it up to a truer and nobler type. To know nothing of our ancestry or from whence we came, to have no reverence for the precious memories of the past or an interest in those who are to succeed us in the battle of life, is to ignore the elements and influences that have made us what we are, and what more precious testimonial of your love of kindred and home can you leave, than that which provides for the transmission of the history of your ancestors, yourself and family, to future generations? And how consoling the thought, that when you shall have been gathered to your fathers, this history shall live through all coming time, as a precious inheritance to your descendants. This is a trust that Providence has confided to your care, and who so dead to sympathy and affection, to kindred and country, that would not preserve the record of his ancestors, the place of his birth, the home of his childhood, and the sacred spot where repose the loved and lost ones of earth. No doubt in the lapse of time, when the sandstone and marble of that ancient graveyard shall have crumbled into dust, some copy of this list will give the descendants of the many different families a trace of their lineage. There is no spot that ever becomes so dear to a man as the spot where cling the memories of his childhood.
