Daleville High School

Vol. XXV, No. 2.

LUKE 2:1-20

And it came to pass in those days that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be taxed.

(and this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:)

To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

And she brought forth her first-born son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

And this shall be a sign unto you; ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told by the shepherds.

But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

Are You Courteous

By Glenda Willis

Most everyone enjoys basketball. Our great Bronco team has done a good job this season in helping everyone enjoy basketball.

The basketball boys need your support by cheering them on to victory, but they do not need your booing. When we cheer for them, it gives them more moral support, but booing only makes their job much harder.

The students of Daleville have done a good job in backing up the team. We need to put a bug in the ears of others who come to see the Broncos win. They should realize that they are only hindering the team when they boo.

I'm sure that I can say on behalf of the pep club and cheer leaders that they appreciate your cheering for the team. Most of all the team needs you to stand behind it.

If you enjoy basketball, come and cheer for dear old Daleville. The Bronco team will do its best to win.

CHRISTMAS EVE

Christmas Eve! In bed so early, trying to go to sleep, hoping that Santa will come early this year. Guess Mom and Dad's putting up the tree; I can hear them whisper and laugh from downstairs. I wonder if Santa can make it down our chimney--it isn't very big. He has before, but maybe he has gained weight. I wish Johnny would finish his bath. Santa will never come with him making a racket like that. I hope I get lots of toys like a model airplane and maybe-----some -----ZZZZZZZZZZZZ.

MISSING YOU

The business department at Daleville has just recently lost one of the best teachers it has ever known, Mrs. Towriss. We have had many interesting classes with her and were able to benefit from each hour. Even though it was hard for us students to see Mrs. Towriss leave D. H. S. on Friday, December 8, it was equally as hard for her to leave. We certainly do miss her but wish her all the happiness in the world.

Now teaching our business courses, we have Mrs. Woolsey, the wife of Coach Woolsey. She is a graduate from Indiana University and is now working on her masters degree at Ball State Teachers College in Muncie. Welcome, Mrs. Woolsey.

"T'WAS THE DAY BEFORE VACATION"

T'was the day before vacation, and all through the school,
Not a student was stirring or breaking a rule.
The books were all crammed in their lockers with care,
In hopes that they wouldn't fall out of there.
The children were sitting all slumped in their chairs,
While visions of Christmas trees danced everywhere.
And the kids in the library and I in my seat,
Had just settled down for a nice little sleep.
When down the hall there came such a clatter.
I sprang from my seat to see what was the matter.
Away to the door I flew like a flash,
Tore open the door, and it hit with a smash.
When, what to my glowing eyes should appear,
But little Mrs. Georgi, with the faculty near,
With a little short man and all of his flock,
More rapid than Broncos his teachers they came,
And he whistled, and shouted, and called them by name.
"Now, Richman! Now, Bishop! Now, Howell and Black!"
"On, Woolsey! On, Wolfe! with the rest at your back.
To the top of the stairs, everyone of you all,
Now, go to your class rooms and get on the ball.
As test papers that before the wild hurricane fly.
When they meet with an obstacle, mount to the sky.
So around the assembly oh! how they flew,
With their arms full of books, and St. Evans' too.
And then such a noise I heard in the hall.
The sweeping and dusting of our janitors all.
As I was shutting the door and was turning around,
Down through the seats St. Evans came with a bound.
He looked so clean from his head to his feet.
And his clothes that he wore were so nice and neat.
A bundle of books he had stuck in a sack,
And he looked like a salesman just opening his pack.
His eyes how they twinkled, his dimples how merry,
His cheeks were like roses, his nose like a cherry.
His droll little mouth was drawn up like a bow,
His beard was so short it didn't even show.
A stubby little pencil, he held tight in his teeth,
And the eraser on the end was shaped like a wreath.
He had a kind face and a swell disposition,
That helped him to hold such a disjointed position.
He was handsome and neat--a right nice looking elf.
And I smiled when I saw him in spite of myself.
A wink of his eye, and a twist of his head,
Soon gave me to know I had nothing to dread.
He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work,
And graded some papers and turned with a jerk.
And laying his finger aside of his nose,
And giving a nod, out the doorway he goes.
He spoke to the teachers and then gave a whistle,
And down the stairs he flew like a fast falling missile.
But I heard him exclaim, ere he tore out of sight,

"READ YOUR TATTLE, AND DO IT TONIGHT!"

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS

RESOLUTIONS CONTINUED

Mrs. Black--I resolve not to get gray hair over teaching this year.

Mr. Dickson--To read my Bible more often, also to talk less and paddle more.

Mr. Wilson--Not to tear Mr. Woolsey's coat at basketball games.

Uncle Bud--Not to buy any more bobby pins to keep my hair out of my eyes.

Mr. Osburn--To set my alarm at 7:15 instead of depending on our new baby boy, Jimmy, to wake me up at that time.

Jim Moore--To stop laughing at Steve Selby's jokes.

Barry Bates--I will resolve to get my homework in on time.

Toni Sargent--To mind my Uncle and bring up my grades.

Marta Calvert--To be able to translate Latin better.

Don Ross--I will not irritate Mr. Wolfe.

Steve Selby--I will not get my grade cut 3% anymore.

Betty Richman--I resolve not to get married until after I graduate.

Walt Robbins--I resolve never to go to Indianapolis with a certain friend again.

Michele Barnhart--I promise not to say casuals, wedgys, pumps, and too cute the rest of the school year.

Lee Ann Wetz--I resolve to make a "B" in bookkeeping before the year is over.

Jean Williams--I resolve to spend more of my leisure hours in Yorktown.

Mr. Minton--I resolve that in the coming year I shall not watch Huckleberry Hound until I have my homework done!

Mrs. Howell--Resolutions for 1962: Coaches make out menus for days of ballgames and track meets. No homework in physical education classes--well not much!

Fannie Flapjaw's resolutions: To answer all problems of girls and boys and all in-betweens.

Karen Brammer--To study more in physics, and try to get better grades in it.

STUDENT COUNCIL NEWS

The student council has elected officers for the coming year. They are: president, Fred Painter; vice president, Steve Selby; and secretary, Roxie Pickel. The members of the student council have been trying to compile a list of all the school rules so that the students can have a copy of them.

F H A

November 21 a fashion show was held and the Selma FHA was invited. Narrative and clothes were provided by Dorothy Blevins. The theme was "Sparkle for the Holidays." Two girls from each class modeled and refreshments were provided afterward.

Susie Groshong and Phyllis Marcam were initiated by candlelight ceremony earlier.

P T A

The High School open house was held November 15. Some seniors acted as hosts, and the art and shop classes had demonstrations. The sixth grade put together a large display of objects from Japan, including a bottle melted in the atomic blast.

After the business meeting, an old fashioned spelling bee was held. Mr. Wolfe was the bee master and 24 pupils stood against 24 adults. There were eleven adults still standing when Ella Irby, the only member of the student body still in the bee was spelled down. Ella was given the trophy for her outstanding performance.

LIBRARY

The only changes in the Library have been in the fines (different kids different books) and the bulletin boards. The bulletin boards are created by the student librarians and changed every two or three weeks. A lot of work goes into these, so the next time you go to the library, note the bulletin board.

HONOR ROLL

Figures have been released from the office telling of those on the honor roll. They are as follows: Straight "A"--12th David Parker; 11th Steve Shoemaker and Tom Reed; 10th Virginia Michael and Dianne Shirey.

REGULAR HONOR ROLL

- 12th Margaret Bender, Andrea Gill, Norma Bradway, Roxie Pickel, Judy Schlegel, Glenda Willis,
- 11th Ralph Dasher, Ella Irby, Toni Sargent, Steve Selby, Marilyn Underwood.

PEP CLUB NEWS

We are proud of our Pep Club this year. It is made up of about 90 members with Mrs. Black as the sponsor. The following officers were elected for the year: Lee Ann Wetz, president; Roxie Pickel, vice president; Jean Williams, secretary; and Sue Painter, treasurer.

All of the girls are backing the team this year. They are working with the yell leaders in planning new yells and songs. They are trying to make this year's Pep Club the biggest and best they have ever had at this school.

They have been spelling "T-E-A-M" and "H-E-L-L-O" at the ballgames and hope to be able to spell more for the tourney.

The Pep Club will go on supporting the ball team in order to make it a successful season.

The Pep Club would like to have the co-operation of all the other students in yelling for the team.

8th Brenda Barnett, Tim Mahan, Charles Campbell, Phyllis Michael, Patty Perkins, Gary Spangler, Marsha Blevins.

7th Frankie Bedwell, Steve Davis, Dennis Costerison, Ruthanna Pugsley, John Dragoo, James Findling, Philip Howell, Joe

A private was walking down the street with his girl when they approached a naval officer. The soldier saluted smartly and the gesture was returned. "Why do Army men salute Navy men?" she asked.

"After all, my dear," replied the soldier, "they are our allies."

First Boy: "What's the best way to teach a girl to swim?"

Second Boy: "That requires technique. First, you put your left arm around her waist. Then you gently take her left hand and--"

First Boy: "She's my sister."

Second Boy: "Oh! Then you just push her off the dock!"

Sergeant: "So, you're complaining of finding sand in your soup?"

Private: "Yes sir."

Sergeant: "Did you join the Army to serve your country, or to complain about the food?"

Private: "I joined the Army to serve my country but not to eat it!"

BY ROXIE PICKEL

Christmas is fast approaching and are you wondering what to wear to that party to which you have been invited? Maybe you have a special date during Christmas vacation and need a special dress.

A popular trend this year for younger and older girls are sheath dresses. Black, white, red, almost any color you want are available. A sheath looks nice with long colored beads or the new and popular chain necklaces. Every girl looks nice when she has on a basic sheath dress with matching or contrasting accessories.

A new style in sheath dresses have been introduced this year, it has no zipper or buttons. It just slips over your head and has an elastic or draw-string waistline. These dresses come in wool, jersey and cotton.

For a more casual look, bulky sweaters are still in style and now they have fringe on the necks and cuffs. They are made with stripes, plaids and large box designs. They look nice with skirts and also with slacks.

When a dressier occasion arises, a sweater and skirt combination always looks nice and neat. Sweaters are now dyed to match the skirts. Also, sweaters with flower designs are pretty. A sweater and skirt can be worn almost anywhere from school and church to a Christmas party.

Are you going to a slumber party sometime over vacation, or to a relative's house for a visit? The popular apparel for bedtime this winter are muu muu nightgowns. They look like a house dress only have no waist line and are in loud, flowered designs. These gowns are made out of cotton and flannel material. With any type of sleeping or lounging apparel, colorful, fluffy slippers are popular.

Every mother probably has the problem of getting her daughter to wear boots when it snows and rains in the winter. Most girls don't like to wear boots because they look big and awkward. A new type of boot has come out this year, boots now have a shoe look to them. They usually have fur inside them and are only a little heavier than regular shoes, but they keep your feet warm and dry.

HAIR STYLES

During the Christmas vacation don't you think it would be fun to experiment with different hair styles? In all women's magazines you see hair styles for every type of hair; long, short, and in between. Here are two that you might like to try for that new look you want for Christmas.

For most of the new hair styles you need rollers. They come in many types and sizes and give a fluffy look to your hair as well as giving it body.

Dear Uncertain

There isn't very much he can do about it now. It is a pity that the boy wouldn't ask the girl about it first, right when it happened. But because he didn't, it looks like he sort of got out of the picture. If he still likes the girl very much, he can wait for her, but he might have a long wait. ## SENIORS TO PRESENT CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The senior speech class is working hard to present a Christmas program to the student body on December 22. Mr. Wolfe will direct the program. A Christmas party has also been planned by the seniors.

The class has been hard at work selling Christmas Cards lately. Also, the DaCapo was on sale December 7, 8, and 11. The seniors don't always sell things. They have recently purchased pins of gold with the letters and numerals, DHS and 1962.

On December 3, the seniors were measured for their caps and gowns. They will be space blue with white tassels on the caps.

The seniors are leaving on their senior trip May 6 and will return May 11. They are going to New York and Washington D. C.

JUNIORS PLAN PROM, ---CAROLING

The junior class has started to make definite plans for the junior-senior prom to be held in May. They have done very well with the concessions at the ball-games this year. This money will help with the expense of the prom.

As a good will project, the class is going to fill a food basket at Christmas for a needy family. They also plan to go caroling.

RINGS FOR THE SOPHOMORES —

Or will it be rings for the seniors, juniors, and freshmen? The sophomores have received their class rings that were purchased from Fred Kahler. The rings came in two styles, one having a gold setting and the other a mother-of-pearl. There is a crest with the letter D for Daleville on top of the setting. The setting is supported by the numerals, 1964 and the initials of the owner.

FRESHMAN RECEIVE THEIR JACKETS

The freshman received their class jackets November 13. They are very proud of them. Here are some comments on them:

Rod Taylor, "Pretty Sharp."
 Kent Main, "Very nice."
 Dan Hinkle, "Real neat."
 Wendle Zirkle, "Crazy."
 Laura Evans, "I like 'em."
 Lucretia Kitterman, "I don't know."

Their junior high dreams of jackets have come true.

The freshman basketball team was defeated November 28 by Highland with a score of 49-19.

EIGHTH GRADE ELECTS YELL LEADERS

The eighth grade elected yell leaders on October 30 for the 1961-62 Junior High basketball season. They are: Kathy Barnell, Marsha Blevis, Sandy English, and Judy Jones.

The team has played four games so far this year. In their first game they beat Elwood, however, they have lost to Harrison, St. Mary's, and Highland.

SEVENTH GRADE STUDIES HARD

The seventh grade has been busy. Mrs. Manring's room has just received their current events scrapbooks which they have been working on. There were quite a few good ones.

Behavior has been the topic of science discussions in both classes. They have recently completed a chapter on the French and Indian War and the small wars leading up to it. They are starting a unit on the Revolutionary War and events causing it. In arithmetic class, they have been reviewing and learning more about fractions.

Grade School News

Mrs. Wood
First Grade

We have been busy with lots of new words to read, to spell, and to write.

For language, we have been learning all the letters in the alphabet, both capital and small letters. It helps us to be better readers and spellers. We've also been writing sentences with capital letters and periods or question marks at the end. Knowing this helps us write stories correctly.

Thanksgiving is now over, but we still enjoy remembering our Indian village and Pilgrim town. We had log cabins and Pilgrims and even the Mayflower on blue paper waves. Our Indians had teepees with stick fires and trees. We made a "Thanksgiving Time" book to remind us to give thanks all through the year.

We have a transportation table with trains, cars, trucks, buses, and ships. The ships are floating in a small tub. We are having stories, poems, and songs about the ways to travel. Maybe even a space ship will be added to the collection.

We're looking forward to Christmas time and having a Christmas tree of our own in the room. We plan to make the decorations for it ourselves. It won't be long before we start working on our surprise presents for our mothers and fathers. It's fun to give presents that we make ourselves.

Mrs. Corazzi
First Grade

Sounds are 'buzzin' from Mrs. Corazzi's first grade room. The children are bringing in objects and pictures of things such as a cigar box banjo and an oatmeal drum. Most of the children are unaware of the sounds around them and how they are made.

At the beginning of the year we read about Dick, Jane and Selly's family. The children brought in pictures of their family which we pinned up on the bulletin board.

We plan to do many interesting things during the coming months of school.

Mrs. Miller
Second Grade

We have some pleasant memories of our unit on Indians. The girls each made an Indian doll and the boys formed groups to make four of the typical homes. They made the tepee, the adobe, the thatched, and the long bark.

We learned why they used these various materials to build their homes. We also studied their picture language and about their food sources.

The Indians helped the white man learn to survive in this new land. They gathered together in the Fall to give thanks. We also remember to be grateful by having Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Heath
Third Grade

There are eighteen boys and twenty girls in the class.

The children made clothing booklets for science class. One section showed pictures and stories about, "Clothing from Living Things," and the second section showed, "Clothing from Other Things."

Each child made "A Good Breakfast Poster" for the health class. They studied foods that make a good breakfast and learned why it is important to eat a good breakfast each morning.

The children gave a Thanksgiving Program for Mrs. Pugsley's class. The play was, "You Are There at the First Thanksgiving." There were also Thanksgiving poems and the class sang, "Over the River." In closing Marna Jackson read the 100th Psalm.

We play our new games on rainy days. These games were purchased from the collections of library fines and the $3.00 which was given to us as a prize in October by the P.T.A.

Kristine Poe brought her pet chipmunk, Chico, to school for a visit. We were very happy to have him, as we have been reading about animals of the woods in our reader. Chico was fun to watch.

We are telling true stories in language class. Many very interesting things have happened to some of our boys and girls.

A fine Thanksgiving was had by all. Now, we are looking forward to Christmas.

Mrs. Holbrook
Fourth Grade

Interest is running high in social studies in fourth grade. The children have just finished a unit on desert life in our country and in the Sahara Desert. They are now beginning a unit on the great wheat lands of the world.

In arithmetic they are learning long division. This is one of the big steps in fourth grade arithmetic.

Mrs. Thornburg
Fifth Grade

In our reading, we have enjoyed learning about the pioneers of the early west. We children don't have to work as hard as pioneer children did.

Our science lessons on T.V. teach us many things about nature and wildlife, and we enjoy just watching the pictures and demonstrations.

grades up to required standard so they will be eligible for the Fifth Grade Basketball Team. Mrs. Thornburg thinks it is a good way to get some of them to work well.

BY STEVE PERKINS

BOTH TEAMS DROP OPENERS

The first game of the season was with the Selma Bluebirds. It was a good game all the way until Selma finally pulled away in the last of the fourth quarter. The boys fought hard but just couldn't get the points when they needed them. Daleville's scoring was led by Don Ross with 15 markers and Steve Shoemaker with 13. Selma's top men were Gloire with 15, Arthur Dickover was the other man in double figures with 10. Final score was Selma, 62, Daleville, 47.

The reserves found it rough going as they were defeated by a score of 45 to 21. The winners top men were Felton getting 16 and Fannin with 5. Howell was high for Daleville with 7 followed by Stevenson with 6.

DALEVILLE DEFEATS HIGHLAND

The gym was packed and the game was hot and heavy all the way. Daleville led most of the way with Highland tying the score at 66 all. Then Shoemaker hit a foul shot that put them ahead and that's the way it ended, 67 to 66, Daleville. Ross led the Daleville scoring with 22 points and Shoemaker added 17 markers. For the losers Green paced the Scots with 20 and Fern got 11.

The Bronco's reserves again tasted defeat but not without a good fight. This was a double-overtime with Marvell fouling out of the game in the second overtime. He scored 5 points in the overtimes which kept them in there. He also paced the seconds with 12 points while Moore and Howelleach scored 10. High point man for Highland was Bennett with 13 and Bartlett with 11.

THE TIGERS ARE STOMPED BY THE BRONCOS

Daleville again won a good one from an old rival. The Broncos were ahead all the way and the Tigers of Yorktown just couldn't catch up. Quirk, of the Tigers, got 15 points in a losing effort and Niccum added 12. For the winners Ross had a good night getting 27 points and Reeves contributed 14 markers. The final score was 63 for Daleville, 53 for the Yorktown Tigers.

Again the reserves put up a good fight but couldn't match Yorktown, as they were defeated in a low scoring game, 25 to 21. High for Yorktown was Allison with 5; Neal, Hough, and McKibben all had 4. Leading Daleville was Howell with 6 and Moore with 4.

BRONCOS DEFEATED FOR SECOND LOSS

The Spartans of Center were on their toes as the Broncos just could not get the buckets and the Spartans could. Center's offense was led by Kilmer with 19 points, Cunningham popped in 16, and Terrell finished up with 10. For the Broncos Ross got 27 markers while Shoemaker added 10 points.

UNION DEFEATS DALEVILLE

Daleville took its third loss of the season to the showers as they were defeated by Union Township of Randolph County. Leading scorers for Daleville were Shoemaker with 17 and Ross with 15. Final score for Union, 71, Daleville, 54.
