11. Obituary, Isaac Robbins. Noblesville Daily Ledger - 24 Aug 1909, page 1, Acc000881/Ph3188.jpg.

Extract: Isaac Robbins, a farmer, died suddenly at his home near Hortonville, Thursday, of stomach trouble. He was 63 years of age and a member of the Friends church. Several children survive him.

12. Interview, ID0005, 23 Jan 2007. Conducted by son ID0001. Acc000856.

Extract: had a rupture and wore a belt contraption that had some kind of a ball attached to it which was supposed to help hold in the rupture. It was supposed to be loosened a few times each day. Oscar [ID0014] felt they did not loosen the belt enough and that Isaac's intestines got tangled up and would not work. That is what caused his death. [His obituary says the cause of death was stomach problems].

FUNERAL RITES MRS. ROBBINS

Died Near fishers and Burial Friday at Chester

Following a protracted illness due principally to the infirmities of age, Mrs. Kiziah Robbins, widow of Isaac Robbins, died, Wednesday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Mollenkoff, two miles east of Fishers, with whom she had been living for the past four years. She was eighty years old.

The funeral will be held at the Chester Friends church, north of Westfield, at 11 o'clock, Friday morning. Rev. Jehu Reagan, of Hortonville, will have charge of the services and the interment will occur in the cemetery near the church. The family lived in the vicinity of Chester and Hortonville for many years and is well known in the northwestern part of the county. The husband died twenty-five years ago.

Mrs. Robbins is survived by two sons besides the daughter at whose home her death occurred. They are Oscar Robbins, five miles west of Cicero and Chisthopse [sic] Robbins, near Oaklandon. A brother, A. J. Tomlinson, of Cleveland, Tenn.; a sister, Mrs. Alva Kivett, of Frankfort, and a half-sister, Mrs. Alpha Carey, of the Chester Neighborhood also survive.

Extract:

Walt stated that the guitar belonged to Christopher Columbus Robbins ID0071 and not to Grandpa. He said that Grandpa told him that he played the violin and that Christopher played the guitar at barn dances in Westfield when they were younger. Walt also said that Myron got the guitar with the intention of learning to play it but he didn't think he had much success.

[Email from Living Robbins ID0186 to Robbhaas - 21 Jan 2008

I am going to answer your letter very soon. In the mean time, here is a picture of Grandpa Robbins's guitar. I didn't know about the violin or guitar until buying dad's house and finding the guitar and the violin case. The case was hanging from the rafters in the basement but it was empty. Dad later told me sadly that one of the kids had torn it up. But, I still have it, it is lined with purple velvet. The guitar is just as I found it, one or two strings I think, and I keep it next to the fireplace in the family room. I had it hanging on my son's wall as decoration for years, that is what the red plastic tie hanging from the end is for, I just have never taken it back off. [Actually, the guitar had belonged to Christopher and the violin to Oscar].

53. Walter C Robbins ID0005. Interview 29 Sept 2005. Interviewed by his son, ID0001. Acc001067/Doc0740.pdf, Walter's Recollections of Arthur.
Extract: His wife was the domineering one - she had been a prostitute - married him for his money -- They had a farm up northern Indiana -- She talked Christopher into selling everything and they had an auction to sell all the machinery and tools (they rented the farm). - they got $3500 and they put it in the bank in a joint account -- They bought a new Ford car and she did all the driving so she said she wanted the car in her name and he said OK. -- The bank account was in both their names - when they sold all the stuff at auction they put the money in the bank - She went to the bank and took all the money out and since the car was in her name she took off with the money and the car. -- She didn't divorce him so he got the divorce from her. -- Sometime before the divorce Dad, Ina and Grandpa Robbins went to visit - She took the kids to town and she spent the day at the elevator - she was going with some guy at the elevator - the whole day she was at the elevator - Dad couldn't remember exactly what the kids did but probably played around the elevator. -- Dad talked about an Amish guy who lived next door to Christopher - He would haul manure and would take his shoes and socks off and wade around in the manure -- He had a brand new Model T in his barn but had never driven it - Dad had no idea why he had bought it in the first place. -- Christopher was not as big as Grandpa Robbins - He was a carpenter -- After the divorce he came to live with Grandpa [his brother] and his family -- Christopher was never satisfied after the divorce - Grandpa Robbins would pay him but he was worthless as a hired hand -- He wouldn't shave himself - he would go to town to get shaved - Christopher didn't drive so Myron would drive Christopher and Dad into town - Christopher would get his shave and then the three of them would go to a picture show and then come back home -- He lived with them 2 or 3 years -- Then he went down to Noblesville and was a manager of a park where he took care of it and lived there the year round -- Didn't see him anymore after he left -- When his wife left him that just killed him -- He thought the world of her but she didn't think much of him evidently - she just took him -- Dad said that affected him so much that when he got married he never put his cars in his and Mom's name for that reason - he did that for a long time. He said he had gone through all this when he was a kid and it stayed in his mind. He knew he did it to Mom - it wasn't because he hated her or anything - he remembered what happened - she got everything and it just killed him - they might as well have shot him because he was dead after that - and she wasn't anything but a whore -- They never had any kids -- His wife's name was Ethyl.

58. Interview, Ina Robbins Henderson, daughter of Oscar - ID0197.

Extract:

Ina [ID0197] said that Gpa [ID0014] raised Poland China Hogs and White Rock chickens that he took to the Ind State Fair and won several ribbons for them This was also confirmed by Dad [ID0005]. He kept these ribbons in the family bible. Ina didn't know what ever happened to the bible and neither did dad [Id0005]. He won mostly blue ribbons but also had some red ones as well. There is a picture showing some of these hogs. Ina and Gpa are in the barn lot with the hogs.

59. Interview, with ID0005, son of Oscar.

Extract:

Pony/ western horses: Gpa got some "western" horses [according to Ina ID00197 and ID0005]. They were mainly used for pulling farm machinery and other work around the farm. They were a feisty lot, but one in particular was very mean and was not able to be used as a work horse. It would rear up in its stall and try to smash Gpa if he went into its stall to attempt to saddle it. They also had a pony for the kids to ride. Mary [ID0052] would try to ride it and it would lay down and not go anywhere. Mary would stand there and cry. Dad [ID0005] said he rode it probably the most. Ina rode it quite a bit as well. Myron did not ride the pony much, preferring another horse. The pony had been loaned to them and the owner took it back after a year to raffle it off.

I am going to answer your letter very soon. In the mean time, here is a picture of Grandpa Robbins's guitar. I didn't know about the violin or guitar until buying dad's house and finding the guitar and the violin case. The case was hanging from the rafters in the basement but it was empty. Dad later told me sadly that one of the kids had torn it up. But, I still have it, it is lined with purple velvet. The guitar is just as I found it, one or two strings I think, and I keep it next to the fireplace in the family room. I had it hanging on my son's wall as decoration for years, that is what the red plastic tie hanging from the end is for, I just have never taken it back off.

stated that the guitar belonged to Christopher Columbus Robbins ID0071 and not to Grandpa. He said that Grandpa told him that he played the violin and that Christopher played the guitar at barn dances in Westfield when they were younger. he also said that Myron got the guitar with the intention of learning to play it but he didn't think he had much success.

FUNERAL RITES MRS. ROBBINS

Died Near fishers and Burial Friday at Chester

Following a protracted illness due principally to the infirmities of age, Mrs. Kiziah Robbins, widow of Isaac Robbins, died, Wednesday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Mollenkoff, two miles east of Fishers, with whom she had been living for the past four years. She was eighty years old.

The funeral will be held at the Chester Friends church, north of Westfield, at 11 o'clock, Friday morning. Rev. Jehu Reagan, of Hortonville, will have charge of the services and the interment will occur in the cemetery near the church. The family lived in the vicinity of Chester and Hortonville for many years and is well known in the northwestern part of the county. The husband died twenty-five years ago.

Mrs. Robbins is survived by two sons besides the daughter at whose home her death occurred. They are Oscar Robbins, five miles west of Cicero and Chisthopse [sic] Robbins, near Oaklandon. A brother, A. J. Tomlinson, of Cleveland, Tenn.; a sister, Mrs. Alva Kivett, of Frankfort, and a half-sister, Mrs. Alpha Carey, of the Chester Neighborhood also survive.

Muncie, Ind./ May 6, 1955

Dear Helen,

Many thanks for your commencement program we received a few days ago.

We are glad you have always had such a good school to go too and have finished high school. And it would be nice if you could make something out of your schooling.

I hope you will not forget your father who has worked lots of days, where he wasn't able so you children would have the things you have needed and wanted.

Wednesday morning we were looking at television and say you interviews by Hal Simons. Could see and hear you as well as if we had been there.

It was quite a thrill for me and I know it was for you.

We want to give you a little something, but as we do not go to town very often and don't know what you need or want will send you the money.

Hope it gets there O.K. It isn't very much but maybe you can get something with it.

We both wish you all the happiness and good fortune you can get out of life.

Have a good time while you can.

Love,/ Your Grandfather and Grandmother.

Monday Morning.

We got one letter from Junior while he was in the hospital, in March, but haven't heard from him since. I answered him and Esther has written to him three times with out an answer. Hope he got better and able to go back to whatever he was doing. Expect he has found out he has gotten into something pretty serious.

Your Grand father has been pretty sick but is lots better to day. The Dr. was here yesterday and isn't coming back unless we send for him. He still has Asthma and sinus trouble, has been having rheumatism in one leg for sometime, then last week he had a blood clot in the other leg. That is gone now and he feels better every day so we are feeling much encouraged this morning.

TERRIBLY MANGLED - William Robbins, Living Near Horton, Meets a Horrible Death - William Robbins, a farmer living near Hortonville, was killed in the harvest field on the farm of the Hon. Thomas J. Lindley, by being caught in a binder while cutting oats, Monday afternoon. He was stooping over the binder attempting to make some repairs on the machine, when the horses started, throwing him directly in front of the sickle bar. One leg and one arm were cut off before he was rescued from his awful position. He died while being conveyed to his home. A widow and five children survive him - [Note: He was never married and had no children - obit misprint, other info correct].

2 WELL KNOWN MEN GONE TO THEIR REWARD

Funeral Rites For J. H. Mollenkopf at Fishers Saturday afternoon

DIED SUDDENLY AT HIS HOME

James H. Mollenkopf, 77 years of age, and a resident of the southern part of the county many years, died suddenly at his home two miles southeast of Fishers, Thursday night. While he had not been in good health for some time, he was up and around, Thursday, and felt as well as usual. Shortly after supper he fell over and passed away in a short time.

The services will be held at one o'clock Saturday in the M.E. Church at Fishers with Rev. Conway, pastor in charge, and interment will take place in the Odd Fellows cemetery at Oaklandon. He was a member of the IOOF Lodge at Oaklandon. Funeral arrangements are in charge of Evans & Godby.

There are no children but Mr. Mollenkopf is survived by the widow, a brother, Thomas E. Mollenkopf, and the following sisters: Mrs. Mary Rice, of Indianapolis; Mrs. Joyce VanLaughen of Frankfort, and Mrs. Belle McGhehey, of Castleton.

111. Interview, with Walter C Robbins Sr ID0005 - 23 Jan 2007.

Extract: Sometime after her husband Jim died [1937] she sold the farm and bought 2 houses in Fishers, IN. The houses were next to each other. She lived in one and rented the other one.

112. Interview, Walt Sr ID0005 - 12 Dec 2006 at his home.

Extract: Stated that when Lizzie's husband, James died she sold the farm and moved to Fishers and bought 2 houses. She lived in one of them and rented out the other one. She then sold the 2 houses and lived in the Odd Fellows Lodge in Indianapolis on Columbus Ave and kept house for them.
