ST. STEPHENS HIGH SCHOOL

Foreword

We offer this book as a key to our memories - memories of the routine, the fellowship, the hardwork, and the special events that make up our school year.

Years from now when we are all leading our own lives, scattered about the country, only this book will tie us together. We hope that in those years, when we look back through this book, it will serve as a key to the memories of this school year, one of the best years of our lives.

Dedicated To...

Mrs. William T. Dellinger

We esteem her for her kindness; we honor her for her service; we admire her for her patience; we love her for -- herself.

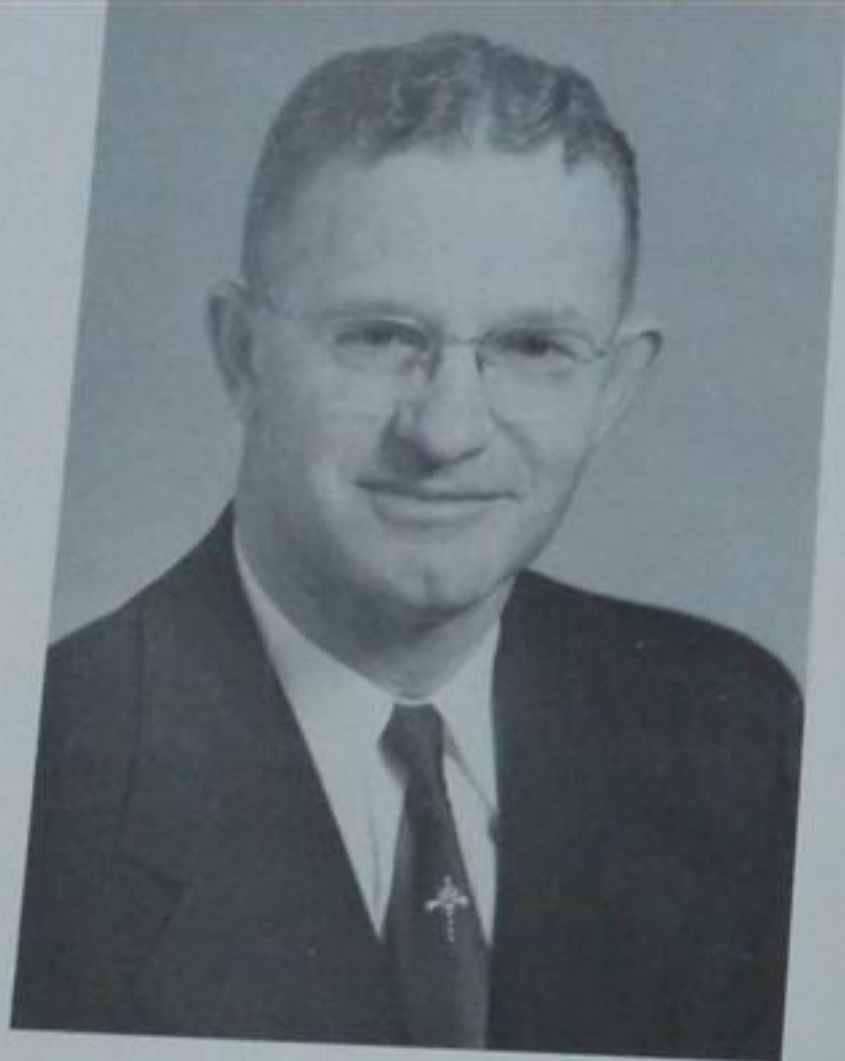

We find a sincere friend in Mrs. Dellinger as well as an accomplished teacher. We greatly appreciate and admire her for her tremendous understanding. Her sweetness and honesty, along with her understanding, are her highest qualifications as a friend to each and every student.

SENIOR CLASS POEM

The Yellow Rose has burst its bud
As the sun looks down from Heaven,
Upon this earth, another flower!
The class of fifty-seven!
To many folks this is just another year
In the annals of our time,
But to those who'll leave St. Stephens High,
This is the year sublime,
We've toiled through twelve long years
To set our goals in sight;
Homework gave us that "pain in the neck"
Till the wee hours of the night,
We've all had our ups and downs
And failed a test or two;
Preparation brought us happiness;
Slackness made us blue,
'Twasn't often we appreciated
Our parents constant cry,
"Get out of bed and hustle,
Your ride will soon be by,"
Nor did we think to give our thanks
As often as we should
To those fine folks of ours, who
Only through self-denial could Afford the many things it takes
To make us feel secure;
To whom we give our gratitude
For ever and ever more,
We must not by-pass our teachers
Who gave us certain glances
To get our minds back on our work
And out of teen-age trances,
"Their best interests are for you,"
Oftimes so hard to believe,

But to them we give a special praise,
 And ask that they receive
 The personal thanks of each of us
 In whom there has been planted
 Roots of knowledge, virtue, and love
 Which will never be supplanted,
 We raise our praise unto our school,
 Good Old St. Stephens High.
 To the spirit of the Blue and Gold
 May it never die;
 But be nurtured by the spark of youth
 Who'll fill these cultured halls
 To sing its songs and anthems raise
 As in shatter forth its walls,
 May each one who remains herein
 To gain his education
 Endeavor to find the joys
 That come with graduation,
 Having made accomplishment in
 Everything that is done
 For through continuous effort
 The battle will be won,
 And so we bid farewell to thee
 And leave you our adieu
 Praying for best success in
 Whatever path we choose,
 "If God be for us, who can be against us?"
 Our motto for inspiration
 To guide us through the years ahead,
 A thought for meditation,
 And as we reach into the future
 And towards our goals we climb,
 Let's not forget we've left
 Footprints on the sands of time.
 - Marvin McNeilly
